A Child's Prayer to Saint Thorlak

Hello, Dear Friend,
I know you're there,
though just beyond my sight;

I feel the warmth
of you in prayer
and smile with delight.

You know my heart
when I can't speak, though many times I've tried

You wait and watch,
and gently seek,
till I no longer hide.

Please guard my dreams
by night and day
and light the way to reach them;

When friends think I don't want to play,
please, whisper how to teach them.

I'm stronger when I know you see
the best in all I do

Please, help me grow
and learn to be a holy saint like you!
